

sly, cunning

A fox, when one has caught her,

And such a daughter,

Should sure to the slaughter,

If my cap would buy a halter,

So the fool follows after.

Lear would be much better off without Goneril/if Goneril was dead.

The fool will follow
Lear to his fate/end. ^{a noose.} Forbodes death

* Goneril is dangerous, she could be the death of Lear.

The fool is referring to Goneril as a fox, this symbol is used to show that his daughter is sly, sneaky or cunning. The fool says that King Lear would be much better off without Goneril in his life, and that it is

The fool possible she will be the death of him. then says ~~he says~~ that he will follow Lear to that his fate/end.

the can also be interpreted as

'Halter' is also a noose and the fool could be saying he would get rid of Goneril or he is foreshadowing Lear's end/death at the hands of Goneril?

Goneril is bad, she has ulterior motive?

Better off

without her

Halter = noose
death foreshadow

G & R THOUGHT
BY LYING TO LEAR THEY WOULD GAIN HAPPINESS BUT NOW THINGS HAVE TURNED
2 SHIT

THEN THEY FOR SUDDEN JOY DID WEEP,

AND I FOR SORROW SUNG.

THAT SUCH A KING SHOULD PLAY BO-PEEP

AND GO THE FOOLS AMOUNGT.

THEIR KING IS LOSING THE PLOT
& HIS POWER
SO ITS ALL GOING DOWNHILL

LEAR IS COVERING HIS EYES AS IF IT IS ALL A GAME.

LEAR IS BECOMING A FOOL AND IS ACTING FOOLISH

MEG, JESSA & ALBIE ARE ^{HELLA} RAD

• LEAR HAS MADE
A BAD Decision, TO GIVE AWAY
HIS LAND.

- He's done something out of the normal
a bit ugly and messy... with his daughters

• LEAR GETS CALLED A FOOL

- The fool was saying that whoever gave the king the advice was sweet
but dumb to do that and that Lear did the wrong
thing

"THAT LORD THAT COUNSELLED THEE
TO GIVE AWAY THY LAND, COME PLACE HIM HERE BY ME.
DO THOU FOR HIM STAND.
THE SWEET AND BITTER FOOL
WILL PRESENTLY APPEAR;
THE ONE IN MOTLEY HERE,
THE OTHER FOUND OUT THERE."

- FOOL

Have more than thou showest,
Speak less than thou knowest,
Lend less than thou owest,
Ride more than thou goest,
Learn more than thou trowest,
Set less than thou throwest.
Leave thy drink and thy whore,
And keep in - a - door.
And thou shalt have more Than two tens to a score.

modesty

Lear gave his daughters more than they were owed

if you sacrifice

Better yourself.

• DONT
GIVE IT ALL AWAY/
BECAUSE IF YOU DO YOU HAVE NO MORE TO GIVE (Lear may have no more to give)

Fools
don't lose wisdom
over time

Fools had never less grace in a year

For wise men are grown foppish
And know not how their wits to wear
Their manners are so apish

once wise
but now favours how others perceive him

More concerned with appearance than wisdom
which is wrong

ape-like imitates
how others
act

Ironic as fools are supposed to be

Fool's
Wisdom: Care more of what you say and think or decide than whether others respect your appearance and behaviour.

~~Calling them 'dumb' unable to see~~
